

SNAPSHOTS FROM THE ROAD

For the 15th month, SB&D did not travel. This is the last quarter that will be the case as the virus has subsided. It's time to pack up and go to the next great place in the South. Next quarter we start anew and we also begin the process of building the next live version of the Southern Economic Development Roundtable in January of 2022.

1

2

1: Economic development veteran Mac Holladay at SEDR5@WaterColor.
2: Michael Olivier, Michael Randle, Don Pierson, Matthew Randle and Henry Florsheim at SEDR6@WaterColor.
3: Ed Castile and Neal Wade at one of the SEDR@WaterColor events
4: The late Melissa Medley of Vision First Advisors and Crystal Stiles of FP&L.
5: J.D. Lowery, SEDC's Gene Stinson and Matt Randle.
6: Former Louisiana Secretary of Commerce Michael Olivier, current Louisiana Secretary of Commerce Don Pierson at SEDR@WaterColor3 in 2016. Former South Carolina Secretary of Commerce Wayne Sterling is behind them.
7: Workforce development educator extraordinaire Glen Fenter.
8: Kentucky Sec. of Commerce Larry Hayes with Randle.
9: SEDR7@WaterColor.
10: Walter Sprouse, Michael Randle, Will Williams and Robbie Bennett.

3

4

5

6

7

15

16

17

8

9

10

18

19

20

11

12

11: Chuck Whipple and Bob Leak, Jr., at SEDR4@WaterColor
12: South Carolina's Hal Johnson and Deepal Eliatamby.
13: Matthew Randle with Virginia's Victor Hoskins and Stephen Moret.
14: Ted Abernathy, Jeff McKay and Chris Masingill at SEDR7@WaterColor.
15: Glenn McCullough, Jr., at SEDR6@WaterColor.
16: Michael Olivier involved in the SEDR4@WaterColor discussions.
17: Mark Heath and Mark Williams.
18: SB&D's Stacy Randle and Shelly Jo Jacobs.
19: SB&D owner Michael Randle speaking at Freightwaves in Atlanta shortly before the pandemic began.
20: Attendees at SEDR5@WaterColor. 🍷